FRIDAY E.E. NG. DECEMBER 13.

MR DAVIS'S BODY SERVANT,-James H. Jones, who was the body servant of Mr. Davis at the time of his capture, and has for many years been an alderman of Raleigh, N. C., sent the following dispatch:

"RALEIGH, N. C.—To Mayor Shakes-pears. New Orleans: As the old body-ser-vant of the late Jefferson Davis, my great desire was to be the driver of the remains of my old master to their last resting place. Returning too late to join the white delegati n from this city, I am deprived of the opportunity of showing my lasting appreciation for my best friend.

"(Signed), JAMES H. N. JONES."

At the memorial services in Raleigh he had a seat immediately in front of the stage. When last in Raleigh Mr. Davis excused himself from other callers to go to his room and talk with "my friend, James

THE TITLE TO THE POTOMAC FLATS .-The Secretary of War in his annual report says: "The suit for the settlement of the title to the Potomac flats has been pushed forward as rapidly as practicable during the current year. The evidence has been largely taken, and I am advised by the special counsel in charge of the cause that it will be ready for hearing at the next general term of the Supreme Court of the District." It is the oplnion of those well versed in the particulars of this case that a decision will be rendered therein which will possibly make the descendants of James Marshall, a brother of Chief Justice Marshall, once more the wealthiest people in this section of Virginia.

THE GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the NINETIETH year of its existence, and is not only the oldest paper in the State, but, with few exceptions, in the country.

Notwithstanding the fulness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep, abreast of the times in all that pertains to a NEWS paper, furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially or commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandrians. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate.

Through all this section of the State, and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities.

In the household, counting room and workshop it is an ever-welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay.
